Report on review of interim condensed consolidated financial statements

To the Shareholders and the Supervisory Board of Sberbank

We have reviewed the accompanying interim condensed consolidated financial statements of Sberbank (the "Bank") and its subsidiaries (together the "Group"), which comprise the interim consolidated statement of financial position as at 30 June 2015 and the related interim consolidated statements of profit or loss and interim consolidated statements of comprehensive income for the three-month and the six-month periods then ended, interim consolidated statement of changes in equity and interim consolidated statement of cash flows for the six-month period then ended and selected explanatory notes.

Management is responsible for the preparation and presentation of these interim condensed consolidated financial statements in accordance with IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting. Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on these interim condensed consolidated financial statements based on our review.

Scope of review

We conducted our review in accordance with International Standard on Review Engagements 2410, Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity.

A review of interim condensed consolidated financial statements consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with the International Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying interim condensed consolidated financial statements as at 30 June 2015 and for the period from 1 January 2015 till 30 June 2015 are not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting.

1 Introduction (Continued)

At 31 December 2014 the principal rates of exchange used for translating each entity's functional currency into the Group's presentation currency and foreign currency monetary balances were as follows:

	/RR	/UAH	/BYR	/KZT	/EUR	/CHF	/TRY

2 Operating Environment of the Group

The Group conducts its business in the Russian Federation, Turkey, Switzerland, Belarus, Kazakhstan, Ukraine, Austria and other countries of Central and Eastern Europe.

The Russian Federation. The most part of the Group operations are conducted in the Russian Federation.

In the first half of 2015, GDP declined by 3.4%<sup>1</sup>, year-on-year. In the first quarter of 2015 GDP decreased by 2.2%<sup>2</sup>, the decline accelerated to 4.6%<sup>1</sup> in the second quarter, year-on-year. The deepening recession was largely caused by the following factors: reduction in investments in the second quarter of 2015 and decline in the household consumption. Investments decreased by 3.6%<sup>2</sup> in the first quarter of 2015, while in the second quarter - by 6.7%<sup>1</sup>, year-on-year. Retail sales in the second quarter of 2015 decreased by 9.4%<sup>2</sup> against 6.4%<sup>2</sup> in the first quarter of 2015 compared to the same periods in 2014. The grounds of the deepening recession in retail are: speedup of the fall in the real disposable income from 1.3%<sup>1</sup> in the first quarter of 2015 to 4.6%<sup>1</sup> in the second quarter 2015 compared to the same periods of 2014, shift to the savings pattern of behavior by the public and the actual stop in the retail growth lending (growth slowed to 0.8%<sup>3</sup> in June 2015 as compared to June 2014). The public's propensity to save was evidenced by the growth of the share of income allocated to savings, which amounted 14%<sup>2</sup> in the first half of 2015 compared to 7%<sup>2</sup> in 2014 and 10%<sup>2</sup> level attributable to the relatively stable 2011-2013. As a result, the growth rate of retail deposits reached 17.8%<sup>3</sup> in June 2015 compared to the same period of the last year.

The index of industrial output decreased by 2.7%<sup>2</sup> in the first half of 2015, year-on-year. In the first quarter of 2015 production fell by 0.4%<sup>2</sup>, and in the second quarter decline amounted to 4.9%<sup>2</sup>, year-on-year. In the first quarter of 2015 the industrial sector was supported by accelerated budget expenditure on national defense (during the first quarter of 2015 the defense spending reached 49.3%<sup>4</sup> of the amount scheduled for the entire 2015) and the start of the construction of the gas pipeline The Power of Siberia. In the second quarter of 2015 the development of national defense spending slowed significantly (14%<sup>4</sup> of the volume scheduled for entire 2015). Weakening consumer demand also affected the decrease in the index of industrial output.

Decline in demand, as well as a gradual reduction in impact of the Russian rouble depreciation on the prices and food embargo factors, were the main contributors to restrain inflation in the second quarter of 2015. After reaching a peak of 16.9%<sup>2</sup> (annualized) in March 2015, inflation then slowed down to 15.3%<sup>2</sup> by June 2015. Reduction of inflation expectations, as well as the absence of accelerating inflation monetary factors has allowed the Bank of Russia to lower sequentially its key rate by 5.5 percentage points to 11.5% in the first half of 2015.

In the second quarter of 2015 capital outflow slowed to USD 20 billion<sup>3</sup>. Adjusted for foreign currency provided within currency repo, currency swap transactions and correspondent accounts of resident banks with the Bank of Russia, net capital outflow of banks and enterprises slowed down to USD 15.3 billion<sup>3</sup>. The outflow was basically generated by the banking sector, reducing the external liabilities by USD 12.3 billion<sup>3</sup>.

Russia's banking sector finished the first half of 2015 with a profit of RR 51.5 billion<sup>3</sup> that is almost nine times less than the prior year amount. Taking into account profit earned by the Bank, the rest of the Russian banking system recorded a net loss. A significant decrease in profit, among other items, was the result of deterioration in the quality of the loan portfolio. In the first half of 2015 the share of overdue loans in the corporate loan portfolio rose from 4.2%<sup>3</sup> to 5.9%<sup>3</sup>, and in the retail loan portfolio - from 5.9%<sup>3</sup> to 7.5%<sup>3</sup>. Deterioration of the loan portfolio quality forces banks to allocate substantial amounts to provision charges (net increase in loan loss provisions amounted to RR 571 billion<sup>3</sup> in the first half of 2015 compared to RR 399 billion<sup>3</sup> in the first half of 2014).

2 Operating Environment of the Group (continued)

There was a multidirectional dynamics of the Russian rouble exchange rate in the second quarter of 2015. By mid-May 2015 the Russian rouble strengthened by 18% against USD and 15% against EUR, having regained a considerable part of the December depreciation. Following the suspension by the Bank of Russia of foreign currency REPO deals for a year period and beginning of Russian rouble interventions, depreciation of the Russian national currency resumed. As a result the Russian rouble exchange rate has not changed significantly, strengthening by 5% against USD and 3% against EUR during the second quarter of 2015.

The situation on the financial markets during the second quarter of 2015 remained relatively stable in the absence of escalation of geopolitical tensions and revisions of the sovereign ratings. MICEX index grew by 2%, RTS - by 7%. From the beginning of 2015 MICEX index grew by 19%, RTS - by 19%. Rouble capitalization of the Bank for the second quarter of 2015 increased by 15%, for the six months of 2015 - by 32%.

Other jurisdictions. In addition to Russia the Group conducts operations in Belarus, Kazakhstan, Ukraine, Central and Eastern Europe (Austria, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Slovenia, Serbia, Hungary, Croatia), Turkey, Switzerland and some other countries. Tough economic and liquidity situation in many countries led to a decrease or insignificant growth of GDP followed by shrinking in consumption as well as in investment activities. The primary goals of the local regulators included supporting financial stability, management of GDP deficit and inflation level regulation. Beginning from 1 January 2015 economy of the Republic Belarus ceased to be hyperinflationary as defined by IAS 29 Financial Reporting in Hyperinflationary Economies.

During the six months ended 30 June 2015 political and economic situation in Ukraine remained unstable. As a result, Ukraine has experienced a sharp decrease in GDP, a significant negative balance of payments and a sharp reduction in foreign currency reserves. International rating agencies have downgraded Ukraine's sovereign debt ratings. The National Bank of Ukraine imposed certain restrictions on purchase of foreign currencies, cross border settlements, and also mandated obligatory conversion of foreign currency proceeds into UAH. The combination of the above events has resulted in deterioration of liquidity and much tighter credit conditions where credit is available. As at 30 June 2015, the Group's exposure to Ukrainian risk amounted to approximately 0.4% of total consolidated assets (31 December 2014: 0.6%). The exposure consists of net assets of and the Group funding to the Group's Ukrainian subsidiaries, as well as investments in equity and debt instruments issued by and loans to the Ukrainian government and corporate clients. Management is monitoring these developments in the current environment and taking actions where appropriate. These and any further possible negative developments in Ukraine could adversely impact results and financial position of the Group in a manner not currently determinable.

4 Accounting Policies, Critical Accounting Estimates and Judgements, Adoption of Revised Standards, and Reclassifications

The accounting policies and methods of computation applied in the preparation of these interim condensed consolidated financial statements are consistent with those disclosed in the annual consolidated financial statements of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2014, except for the changes introduced due to implementation of new and/or revised standards and interpretations as at 1 January 2015 or as at the date indicated, noted below:

Defined benefit plans: Employee contributions – Amendments to IAS 19 Employee Benefits (issued in November 2013 and effective for annual periods beginning 1 July 2014). The amendment allows entities to recognize employee contributions as a reduction in the service cost in the period in which the related employee service is rendered, instead of attributing the contributions to the periods of service, if the amount of the employee contributions is independent of the number of years of service.

- IAS 40 Investment Property was amended to clarify that IAS 40 and IFRS 3 Business Combinations are not mutually exclusive. Management's estimates and judgements. Judgements and critical estimates made by Management in the process of applying the accounting policies were consistent with those disclosed in the annual consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2014. For the purposes of these interim condensed consolidated financial statements a loan is considered past due when the borrower fails to make any payment due under the loan agreement at the reporting date. In this case the aggregate amount of all amounts due from borrower under the respective loan agreement including accrued interest and commissions is recognized as past due.

Commercial lending to legal entities comprises corporate loans, loans to individual entrepreneurs, federal bodies and municipal authorities of the Russian Federation. Loans are granted for current needs (working capital financing, acquisition of movable and immovable property), portfolio investments, expansion and consolidation of business, etc. Majority of commercial loans are provided for periods up to 5 years depending on the borrowers' risk assessment. Commercial lending also includes overdraft lending and lending for export-import transactions. The repayment source is cash flow from current production and financial activities of the borrower.

Specialized lending to legal entities includes investment and construction project financing and also developers' financing. As a rule, loan terms are linked to payback periods of investment and construction projects, contract execution periods and exceed the terms of commercial loans to legal entities. The principal and interest may be repaid from cash flows generated by the investment project at the stage of its commercial operation.

In March 2015, following the amendments to the Federal Law of the Russian Federation “On additional measures for supporting the financial system of the Russian Federation” terms and conditions of the subordinated loans received from the Bank of Russia in the total nominal value of RR 500 billion were modified. As it was allowed by the Federal Law the Bank elected to prolong these subordinated loans for 50 years from the date of the original draw down with an ability to unilaterally (without consent from Bank of Russia) roll over this subordinated facility at its maturity. The subordinated loan facility bears an interest rate of 6.5% p.a. Based on the terms and conditions of the modified subordinated loan the interest rate can be reset after 31 December 2019.

The Group considers that the terms of initial financial instruments previously reported by the Group were not significantly modified. On the repricing date the Group will reassess its judgement provided the conditions of the subordinated loans are substantially revised.

The differences shown above arise from classification variances as well as different accounting policies.

Adjustment of provisions is related to the difference between estimation methodology applied in statutory accounting records used as a basis for management reporting and estimation methodology according to IFRS.

Differences arising on securities' classification relate to gains/(losses) on revaluation of securities designated as at fair value through profit or loss in IFRS reporting but classified as available-for-sale in statutory accounting records.

The sum of the line Accounting for derivatives at fair value includes adjustments to reflect non-recognition of Day 1 gain from the complex structured transactions with embedded derivatives as well as recognition of embedded derivatives in the consolidated statement of financial position, the creation of CVA/DVA and the bid/offer provisions, as the necessary components of fair value.

Financial assets and liabilities netting is related to the difference between netting criteria applied in statutory accounting records used as a basis for management reporting and requirements for netting of financial assets and liabilities in IFRS.

26 Financial Risk Management

The risk management function within the Group is carried out in respect of major types of risks: credit, market, liquidity and operational risks. Market risk includes interest rate risk, equity risk and currency risk. The Group's risk management policies are designed to identify and analyze these risks, to set appropriate risk limits and controls, and to monitor the risks and limits. The Group provides loans and advances to customers in foreign currency. Fluctuations of foreign currency exchange rates may negatively affect the ability of borrowers to repay loans, which will in turn increase the probability of loan loss.

26 Financial Risk Management (Continued)

Liquidity Risk. Liquidity risk is defined as the risk of mismatch between the maturities of assets and liabilities. The Group is exposed to daily calls on its available cash resources from overnight deposits, customer's current accounts, term deposits, loan drawdowns, guarantees and from margin and other calls on cash settled derivative instruments.

Following principles underlying gap analysis presentation and the Group liquidity risk management are based on the mix of CBR initiatives and the Bank's practice:

- Cash and cash equivalents represent highly liquid assets and are classified as "on demand and less than 1 month";
- Trading securities, securities designated as at fair value through profit or loss and highly liquid portion of investment securities available-for-sale are considered to be liquid assets as these securities could be easily converted into cash within short period of time. Such financial instruments are disclosed in gap analysis table as "on demand and less than 1 month";
- Investment securities available-for-sale which are less liquid are disclosed according to remaining contractual maturities (for debt instruments) or as "no stated maturity" (for equities);
- Investment securities held-to-maturity including those pledged under repurchase agreements are classified based on the remaining contractual maturities;
- Highly liquid portion of securities pledged under repurchase agreements is disclosed based on the remaining maturities of repurchase agreements;
- Loans and advances to customers, amounts due from banks, derivative financial instruments, other assets, debt securities in issue, amounts due to banks, other borrowed funds and other liabilities are included into gap analysis table based on remaining contractual maturities (for loans and advances to customers "overdue" category represents only actual payments which were overdue);
- Customer deposits aren't disclosed as "on demand and less than 1 month" although customers have an opportunity to withdraw money from any account, including term deposits, before maturity date, losing the right on accrued interest. Customer deposits diversification by number and type of depositors and the past experience of the Group indicate that such accounts and deposits provide a long-term and stable source of funding, and as a result they are allocated per expected time of funds outflow in the gap analysis table on the basis of statistical data accumulated by the Group during the previous periods and assumptions regarding the "permanent" part of current account balances.

27 Credit Related Commitments

The primary purpose of credit related commitments instruments is to ensure that funds are available to a customer when required. Guarantees and standby letters of credit, which represent irrevocable assurances that the Group will make payments in the event that a customer cannot meet the obligations to third parties, carry the same credit risk as loans. Documentary and commercial letters of credit, which are written undertakings by the Group on behalf of a customer authorizing a third party to draw drafts on the Group up to a stipulated amount under specific terms and conditions, are collateralized by the underlying shipments of goods to which they relate or cash deposits and therefore carry less risk than direct lending.

Commitments to extend credit represent unused portions of authorizations to extend credit. With respect to credit risk on commitments to extend credit, the Group is potentially exposed to a loss equal to the total amount of unused commitments. However, the likely amount of loss is less than the total unused commitments since most commitments to extend credit are contingent upon customers maintaining specific credit standards. The Group monitors the maturities of credit related commitments because longer-term commitments generally have a greater degree of credit risk than shorter-term commitments.

Outstanding credit related commitments are as follows:

in billions of Russian Roubles	30 June 2015 (unaudited)	31 December 2014
Guarantees issued	1,930.3	1,951.7
Commitments to extend credit	1,813.7	1,710.8
Undrawn credit lines	918.4	820.3
Import letters of credit and letters of credit for domestic settlements	190.5	250.7
Export letters of credit	97.2	541.9
Total credit related commitments before provision	4,950.1	5,275.4
Provision	(8.7)	(9.3)
Total credit related commitments after provision	4,941.4	5,266.1

As at 30 June 2015 included in Due to corporate customers are deposits of RR 102.9 billion (31 December 2014: RR 118.3 billion) held as collateral for irrevocable commitments under import letters of credit. Refer to Note 12.

The total outstanding contractual amount of undrawn credit lines, letters of credit and guarantees does not necessarily represent future cash payments, as these financial instruments may expire or terminate without any payments being made.

28 Fair Value Disclosures

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

The Group uses the following hierarchy for determining and disclosing the fair value of financial instruments by valuation technique:

- Level 1: quoted (unadjusted) prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2: techniques for which all inputs which have a significant effect on the recorded fair value are observable, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3: techniques which use inputs which have a significant effect on the recorded fair value that are not based on observable market data.

Level 2 includes debt securities of first-class borrowers and derivative financial instruments that are not actively traded on the market. Fair value of these financial instruments was calculated using techniques for which all inputs which have a significant effect on the recorded fair value are observable on the active market. Financial characteristics of comparable financial instruments actively traded on the market were used as inputs for the fair valuation models.

The following describes the methodologies and assumptions used to determine fair values for financial instruments.

Derivatives

Derivatives valued using a valuation technique with market observable inputs derived from well-known market information systems are mainly interest rate swaps, currency swaps, forward foreign exchange contracts and foreign exchange option contracts. The most frequently applied valuation techniques include forward pricing and swap models, using present value calculations. Option-pricing is mostly done with Black-Scholes model and for certain types of options with stochastic local volatility model. The models incorporate various inputs including the credit quality of counterparties, foreign exchange spot and forward rates, interest rate curves and implied volatility.

Trading securities, securities designated as at fair value through profit or loss and investment securities available-for-sale

Trading securities, securities designated as at fair value through profit or loss and investment securities available-for-sale valued using a valuation technique or pricing models primarily consist of unquoted equity and debt securities. These securities are valued using models which sometimes only incorporate data observable in the market and at other times use both observable and non-observable data. The non-observable inputs to the models include assumptions regarding the future financial performance of the investee, its risk profile, and economic assumptions regarding the industry and geographical jurisdiction in which the investee operates.

The following table shows transfers between Level 1 and Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy for financial assets and liabilities measured as at fair value during the six months ended 30 June 2015:

The following table shows transfers between Level 1 and Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy for financial assets and liabilities measured as at fair value during 31 December 2014:

in billions of Russian Roubles	Transfers between Level 1 and Level 2
	From Level 1 to Level 2	From Level 2 to Level 1
Financial assets
Trading securities	7.9	0.1
Securities designated as at fair value through profit or loss	0.8	0.4
Investment securities available-for-sale	4.8	3.5
Total transfers of financial assets	13.5	4.0
Financial liabilities
Obligation to deliver securities	3.6	0.1
Total transfers of financial liabilities	3.6	0.1

The financial instruments are transferred from Level 2 and Level 3 to Level 1 when they become actively traded and fair values are determined using quoted prices in an active market.

The financial instruments are transferred from Level 1 to Level 2 when they ceased to be actively traded. The liquidity of the market is not sufficient to use the market quotation for its valuation and fair values are consequently obtained from valuation techniques using observable market inputs.

The financial instruments are transferred to Level 3 when they ceased to be actively traded and there is no possibility to use valuation techniques with observable market inputs.

The following table shows a reconciliation of the opening and closing amount of Level 3 assets which are recorded as at fair value as at 30 June 2015:

(unaudited) in billions of Russian Roubles	At 31 December 2014	Total (losses)/gains reported in statement of profit or loss	Foreign currency revaluation	Purchases	Sales	At 30 June 2015

Total level 3 financial assets	34.3	5.1	(1.4)	0.9	(1.1)	37.8

For the six months ended 30 June 2015 the gains in the amount of RR 5.3 billion reported in the consolidated statement of profit or loss on Level 3 financial assets were unrealized.

Total losses recognized as profit or loss on trading securities which are presented in the table above are reported in the statement of profit or loss within net gains arising from trading securities.

Total gains recognized as profit or loss on securities designated as at fair value through profit or loss which are presented in the table above are reported in the statement of profit or loss within net gains arising from securities designated as at fair value through profit or loss.

Total gains recognized as profit or loss on derivative financial instruments which are presented in the table above are reported in the statement of profit or loss within net gains arising from trading in foreign currencies, operations with foreign currency derivatives and foreign exchange translation; within net gains arising from operations with precious metals, precious metals derivatives and precious metals accounts translation and within net (losses) / gains arising from operations with other derivatives.

Valuation of share in a real estate company of RR 6.6 billion using valuation techniques based on non-observable inputs

The Group determined fair value of investments based on discounted cash flow model using the following key assumptions: type of WACC and estimated capitalization rate which depend on forecasts on property prices. WACC as at 30 June 2015 is 18.6%.

Should the discount rate used by the Group in the valuation model increase/decrease by 1.0%, the carrying value of the financial instrument would be RR 0.5 billion lower / RR 0.5 billion higher. Should the capitalization rate used by the Group in the valuation model increase/decrease by 1.0%, the carrying value of the financial instrument would be RR 0.9 billion lower / RR 1.0 billion higher.

Valuation of non-voting share in a special investment fund (SIF) with investments in oil companies of RR 4.0 billion using valuation techniques based on non-observable inputs

The Group determined fair value of investments based on discounted cash flow model using the following key assumptions: type of WACC and estimated guaranteed fixed yield on exit. Guaranteed fixed yield is not linked to the market and so has immaterial influence on the value of the financial instrument. WACC as at 30 June 2015 is 13.5%.

Should the discount rate used by the Group in the valuation model increase/decrease by 1.0%, the carrying value of the financial instrument would be RR 0.04 billion lower / RR 0.04 billion higher.

Valuation of investment in a mining company of RR 2.8 billion using valuation techniques based on non-observable inputs

Fair value of investments was determined based on net assets value, while valuation of the investments in the company's operational subsidiaries was based on discounted cash flow model using the following key assumptions: type of WACC, operational expenses, cost of investments, price and volume of sale.

WACC of operational companies as at 30 June 2015 is 12.2%, 14.9%, 16.2%, 13.6% and 18.3%. Should the discount rate used by the Group in the valuation model increase/decrease by 1.0%, the carrying value of the financial instrument would be RR 0.2 billion lower / RR 0.2 billion higher.

Valuation of share in a company with a real estate located in Moscow of RR 1.2 billion using valuation techniques based on non-observable inputs

The Group determined fair value of investments based on discounted cash flow model using the following income parameters: sale price and rental rate.

Should the income parameters used by the Group in the valuation model increase/decrease by 5.0%, the carrying value of the financial instrument would be RR 0.04 billion lower / RR 0.05 billion higher.

Valuation of investments in mutual fund which main assets comprised real estate investments of RR 0.7 billion using valuation techniques based on non-observable inputs

Fair value of investments in mutual funds whose main assets comprise real estate investments are determined based on fair value of properties. Each property is revalued regularly by independent appraisers using sales comparison and income approaches. Application of market average ranges, which is considered to be a reasonably possible change of assumptions used in valuation model for calculation of fair value of such units, results in increase/decrease of fair value by RR 0.08 billion in case of application of the highest/lowest end of the range respectively.

Valuation of foreign currency and precious metals derivatives contracts of RR 20.5 billion using non-observable inputs

The inputs used for estimation of fair values of foreign currency derivatives as at 30 June 2015 were the adjusted yields to maturity of the Belarusian Eurobonds in USD with different maturity dates varying from 12.8% to 14.1%. The input used for estimation of fair values of precious metals derivatives as at 30 June 2015 was the interest rate of attracting deposits in precious metals from individuals, which is 6.0%.

The obligations in Belarusian roubles were estimated against the prevailing rate of attracting funds in Belarusian roubles which is 30.0%. Should the input rate for Belarusian roubles decrease for 1 000 base points the carrying value of the foreign currency derivatives would be RR 0.1 billion lower, the carrying value of the precious metals derivatives would be RR 0.5 billion lower.

Valuation of market index derivatives contracts of RR 1.9 billion using non-observable inputs

These derivative financial assets are options whose underlying assets are quotes of certain market indices, published on a daily basis. The evaluation of these assets is based on the model valuation of derivatives. The model uses Black - Scholes option pricing model on the basis of market information about quotations benchmark indices, the historical volatility of the quotations with additional expert assumptions regarding the discount rate and the expiration date of the options. On the basis of the volatility of the reporting period most likely evolution of the underlying assets from +/-5.69% to +/- 18.18% would impact on the fair value of derivatives in the range of RR+/- 0.1 billion.

The following table shows a reconciliation of the opening and closing amount of Level 3 financial assets and liabilities which are recorded as at fair value as at 31 December 2014:

in billions of Russian Roubles	At 31 December 2013	Total (losses)/gains reported in statement of profit or loss	Foreign currency revaluation	Purchases	Sales	Transfers from Level 3	At 31 December 2014

For the year ended 31 December 2014 the gains in the amount of RR 4.2 billion reported in the consolidated statement of profit or loss on Level 3 financial assets were unrealized.

Total losses recognized as profit or loss on trading securities which are presented in the table above are reported in the statement of profit or loss within net losses arising from trading securities.

Total gains recognized as profit or loss on securities designated as at fair value through profit or loss which are presented in the table above are reported in the statement of profit or loss within net losses arising from securities designated as at fair value through profit or loss.

Valuation of share in an airline company of RR 0.6 billion using valuation techniques based on non-observable inputs

Investment in an airline company is valued using guideline companies method (combination of trading and transaction multiples). Following multiples were applied for calculation of fair value of the investment: EV/EBITDA.

The following significant assumptions were used in the model: ratio (50% / 50%) applied to the results derived from trading and transaction multiples valuation models, discount (53.4%) related to current market risks applied to trading and transaction multiples. As of 31 December 2014 the most significant assumption used in the model was the discount.

The potential effect of measuring the fair value based on the trading and deals multiple without applying the discount, which is considered a reasonably possible alternative assumption, would result in an increase of the fair value by RR 0.7 billion.

Valuation of foreign currency and precious metals derivatives contracts of RR 17.7 billion using non-observable inputs

The inputs used for estimation of fair values of foreign currency derivatives as at 31 December 2014 were the adjusted yields to maturity of the Belarusian Eurobonds in USD with different maturity dates varying from 16.5% to 19.2%. The input used for estimation of fair values of precious metals derivatives as at 31 December 2014 was the interest rate of attracting deposits in precious metals from individuals, which is 6.0%.

The obligations in Belarusian roubles were estimated against the prevailing rate of attracting funds in Belarusian roubles which is 50.0%. Should the input rate for Belarusian roubles decrease for 2000 base points the carrying value of the foreign currency derivatives would be RR 0.6 billion lower, the carrying value of the precious metals derivatives would be RR 0.3 billion lower.

Valuation of market index derivatives contracts of RR 1.5 billion using non-observable inputs

These derivative financial assets are options whose underlying assets are quotes of certain market indices, published on a daily basis. The evaluation of these assets is based on the model valuation of derivatives. The model uses Black - Scholes option pricing model on the basis of market information about quotations benchmark indices, the historical volatility of the quotations with additional expert assumptions regarding the discount rate and the expiration date of the options. On the basis of the volatility of the previous reporting period most likely evolution of the underlying assets from +/-4.46% to +/- 15.79% would impact on the fair value of derivatives in the range of RR+/- 0.1 billion.

Fair values of financial assets and liabilities not accounted at fair value in the financial statements are disclosed below. There are following financial assets and financial liabilities not disclosed in the table below because their carrying amount is a reasonable approximation of fair value due to their short-term nature or repricing to current market rates:

- cash and cash equivalents;
- mandatory cash balances with central banks;
- other financial assets;
- other financial liabilities.
