United Arab Shipping Company convenes general meeting for resolution on potential business combination with Hapag-Lloyd

United Arab Shipping Company SAG (UASC) has today called an extraordinary general meeting for 2 June 2016 in which the shareholders shall, amongst other agenda items, vote whether to approve the conclusion of a business combination agreement with Hapag-Lloyd AG (HL). The talks between HL and UASC regarding a potential combination of their respective container shipping operations are ongoing; no binding agreement has yet been reached. The potential transaction is subject to the approval of the regulatory authorities, the relevant bodies at HL and other stakeholders. Its implementation is also subject to the approval of HL's shareholders.
