

Hedging Operator

Farringdon

WE CREATE A BETTER WORLD OF LOTTERY.

Through innovation, digitalisation and entertainment because we believe in the excitement of aspirational dreams.

The Zeal Group is one of the world's leading interactive lottery companies specialized in the area of online lottery. We offer consumer facing lottery-based games as well as business to business solutions. We have about 300 exceptionally talented people from 28 different nationalities in three locations (London, Madrid, Hamburg). Although publicly listed we live and embrace a start-up culture – and the idea that every ZEAL employee acts and feels like an owner.

MyLotto24 is an affiliate company and is the biggest lottery bookmaker in the world, offering licensed and regulated lottery betting products across Europe with jackpots of up to 190 million Euros. To date, MyLotto24 has paid out more than 750 Million Euros in winnings.

WHO YOU ARE:

You are a talented and creative problem solver. You love being part of a diverse team and adding your unique point of view and skills. You are a self-starter and a lifelong learner. You have a proven track record of process management and optimization to protect the interests of the business. You are hands on and get stuff done. You are up for a challenge and thrive in a dynamic, fast paced environment. Most importantly, you are somebody who is interested in turning the ideas of our clients into innovative solutions.

THE ROLE:

- You are responsible for all operational end to end tasks in the business and ensure meticulousness and robust processes in all operations from the moment the customer wins (via any internal checks and prize pay-out) to the point where MyLotto24 receives compensation from any kind of insurance vehicle.
- You operate and monitor the procedures that process all products of our international customers.
- You monitor recurring processes and develop new process workflows.
- You input accurately sensitive and product-specific data on our platforms.

YOU:

- You have finished your degree and are ok with flexible working hours (morning / evening) and weekends (on rotation)
- You have a basic understanding of technical topics and strong analytical skills
- You like to work systematically and independently
- You feel responsible for the tasks you do and like to work within a team
- You might have worked in product administration in the past
- You might even speak some German

WHAT WE OFFER:

A challenging and interesting job environment, with motivated teams and a friendly and open work atmosphere.
